Description:

Chesa El Toula is located in the ultra-chic and very private Suvretta area. It is one of St. Moritz's most exclusive properties with 6 en-suite bedrooms, an incredible spa, hot tub, steam room, game room, spacious living and superb entertainment area.

The family owned property has been completely renovated, still preserving the traditional Engadin chic. Spread out over five floors, Chesa El Toula offers 900m² of living space. Contemporary design perfectly complements traditional features. Countless one-off pieces from around the world give it an exclusive touch.

This stylish chalet has a cozy living room with a large fireplace, flat screen TV and bar, a sophisticated dining room with a table comfortably seating 10. The state-of-the-art family kitchen has a separate breakfast corner. The exquisite furnishings have been sourced from Le Corbusier, Rugiero, Casa Milano, Porta Romana amongst other exclusive designers. The magnificent facilities include an indoor swimming pool, steam room and an indoor and outdoor hot tub. There is a well-equipped gym and large separate games room with billiards table, and a completely soundproof cinema with the most up to date surround sound. For more peaceful moments, there is a spacious relaxation area with comfy seating. The property also offers a bar and a wine cave with a selection of rare fine wines.

Chesa El Toula accommodates 10 adults and 4 children across 6 luxurious en-suite bedrooms. The master bedroom is a particular highlight, including a spacious dressing room and en-suite bathroom.

Location

Located in the chic Suvretta area of St. Moritz, this 5 chalet offers breathtaking panoramic views over the Engadin valley and the surrounding mountain landscape. The area is known for its beautiful villas in quiet surroundings, while finding itself a mere five-minute drive from the lively town center with its exquisite restaurants, bars, and luxury shops. The Corviglia ski area can easily be reached via the Suvretta chair lift a little further down the road.
