Description

Unique design, ideal for families

Located in the Suvretta area, St. Moritz's exclusive chalet neighborhood, you find yourself in a quiet place in the middle of the forest. Situated only five minutes from town by car you are close to shops, restaurants and nightclubs. The ski slopes are within walking distance from the chalet.

Recently refurbished, this chalet combines traditional materials with a more contemporary style. Upon entering, to the right you will find the beautiful, cozy living room with its open fireplace. From here you reach the beautifully decorated, dining room with access to the terrace. On the other side of the hallway is the homely, fully equipped kitchen. Following stairs down you will find a sauna as well as the ski storage room and a garage.

Up to eight guests can sleep peacefully in four beautiful bedrooms. On the upper level is the master and a double bedroom. On the entrance level is a double bedroom and on the lower floor a twin bedroom. All the rooms have luxurious en suite bathrooms giving this very special place an edge. Ideal for children and families the chalet has a great outside area for playing or sledging
