Description

Nestled in the serenity of the Engadin Valley, just minutes from the glamour of St. Moritz, Chesa Bellaria is an exceptional alpine retreat where contemporary design harmoniously meets timeless tradition. This grand Engadin villa, elegantly appointed with a curated collection of modern art and designer furnishings, offers a living experience of rare beauty and sophistication.

From every room, panoramic mountain vistas unfold. The estate's expansive grounds stretch gently toward the woods, where deer often graze at sunset, creating an atmosphere of peaceful seclusion and privacy.

Perfectly located, Chesa Bellaria is only a short drive from the celebrated ski areas of Corvatsch and Corviglia, the charming village of Silvaplana, and the Samedan private airport.

Inside, six spacious double guest bedrooms each feature their own elegant bathroom, ensuring absolute comfort for every guest. The seventh double, the master suite, with its own entrance and private kitchen area, opens onto a balcony overlooking breathtaking mountain peaks.

The top floor reveals a delightful surprise: a dormitory with six single beds connected to a bright play and relaxation lounge that is the ultimate alpine hideaway for younger guests.

For wellness and rejuvenation, the estate's private spa invites relaxation with its sauna, steam room, and fitness area. Outdoors, the south-facing terrace, sheltered by trees, offers an idyllic setting for al fresco lunches or winter sunbathing surrounded by nature.

The heart of Bellaria is its living area: a modern art gallery in spirit, where bold design meets alpine warmth. Here, a wood-burning fireplace, expansive dining area, winter garden, and fully equipped kitchen flow together seamlessly, creating an inviting space for gathering, celebration, and inspiration.

Chesa Bellaria is more than a home; it is an experience. A place where generations come together to celebrate life, in one of Switzerland's most enchanting landscapes.
